PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD'S DECISION

APPELLANT: Adam J. Velarde
DOCKET NO.: 05-24345.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-32-226-041-0000

TOWNSHIP: North Chicago

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Adam J. Velarde, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston of Liston & Lafakis, Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

The subject property is improved with a 113 year old, class 2 property of masonry construction containing 2,624 square feet of living area. Features include a partial unfinished basement and a detached garage. The subject is situated on a 3,000 square foot site in North Chicago Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends unequal treatment in the assessment process as the basis of the appeal. In support of this inequity argument the appellant submitted a grid analysis with four comparable properties. The appellant submitted the final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review establishing a total assessment for the subject of $70,797. The appellant asserts the subject's improvement assessment is $55,437 or $21.13 per square feet of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $5,544 or $2.11 per square foot of building area.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over (Continued on Next Page)

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds $\underline{a\ reduction}$ in the assessment of the property as established by the \underline{Cook} County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 15,360 IMPR.: $ 20,940 TOTAL: $ 36,300

the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant's argument was unequal treatment in the assessment process. The Illinois Supreme Court has held that taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessment valuations by clear and convincing evidence. Kankakee County Board of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 131 Ill.2d 1 (1989). The evidence must demonstrate a consistent pattern of assessment inequities within the assessment jurisdiction. After an analysis of the assessment data, the Board finds the appellant has overcome this burden.

The appellant presented assessment data on four equity comparables that were generally similar to the subject in assessment class, exterior construction, age and location. They had improvement assessments ranging from $27,143 to $80,962 or from $7.98 to $11.84 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $21.13 per square foot is above the range established by the comparables contained in this record.

The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board.

After considering adjustments and the differences in the suggested comparables when compared to the subject property, the Board finds the subject's per square foot improvement assessment is not supported by the most comparable properties contained in the record and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law $(735 \, \text{LCS} \, 5/3-101 \, \text{et seq.})$ and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
